

SOCIETY

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Oct. 15.—Invitations have been received at Fort Shafter from Mrs. Julius Disney Willis for the wedding of her daughter Maude to Lieut. Clyde Rush Abraham, 2nd Infantry, on Tuesday evening, October 19, at Trinity Church, Asheville, North Carolina. Lieut. and Mrs. Abraham will sail for Honolulu on the November transport and will be at home after November 15 at Fort Shafter.

One of the jolliest affairs of the past week was the supper party given on Saturday evening by Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell in honor of Miss Ann Halloran. After supper Capt. and Mrs. Bell took their guests to the 2nd Infantry Officers Club, and dancing continued until a late hour. Mrs. Bell was assisted by Mrs. Charles H. Lincoln, Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall and Mrs. Joseph McAndrews, and the other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Harding, Lieut. and Mrs. Sullivan, Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan, Lieut. and Mrs. Greene, Lieut. and Mrs. Fredendall, Lieut. and Mrs. McAndrews, Misses Webb, Lenihan, Halloran, Scott, Rosenbaum and Harker, Lieuts. Jones, Cohen, Witzell, Halloran, Lyman, Polhemus.

Miss Ann Halloran, who has been visiting her brother, Lieut. George Halloran, for the past few months, will leave for the mainland on the Matsunaga, which sails for San Francisco on the 20th. Miss Halloran has hosts of friends in Honolulu and it will be with great regret that they will say an revoir to her. Lieut. George Halloran sailed for San Francisco Tuesday on board the mine planter Major Ringgold. Lieut. Halloran's wedding will take place the latter part of October, and after a short wedding trip, Lieut. and Mrs. Halloran will sail for Honolulu on the November transport.

Mrs. Charles H. Lincoln received at the Monday evening bridge club, which met at the 2nd Infantry Club. There were seven tables of bridge and Mrs. Lincoln, having the highest score, won the prize, which was a folding card table. Among those playing cards were Capt. and Mrs. Parker, Capt. and Mrs. Cochran, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Martin, Lieut. and Mrs. Black, Capt. and Mrs. Peck, Major and Mrs. Daehleis, Capt. and Mrs. Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Harker, Mesdames Atkinson, Lenihan, Pearson and Greene, and Lieut. Cohen.

The transport hop held at the Moana hotel was well attended by both the service set from town and the surrounding posts as well as the passengers from the transport. Among those noticed from Fort Shafter were Captain and Mrs. Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Holliday, Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan, Lieut. and Mrs. Greene, Lieut. and Mrs. Dalton, Captain Randolph, Lieut. and Mrs. Sullivan, Miss Lenihan, Miss Harker, Lieut. Lyman, Lieut. Witzell and Lieut. Cohen.

Mrs. Howard Douglas Bode, who was Miss Helen Spaulding of this city. The photograph shows her at the time of her marriage a few months ago. Since then she has been on the coast and now returns to Honolulu, as her husband, Lieut. Bode, U. S. N., comes with the K submarine flotilla.

Major J. B. Douglas, formerly detailed in the Signal Corps with station at Fort Shafter and who has recently been promoted to the grade of major, has been relieved from duty with Company E, Signal Corps, and left the post Wednesday for his new station at Fort Kamehameha. Major Douglas was accompanied by Mrs. Douglas and their two children.

Capt. and Mrs. Howell entertained on Tuesday evening in their attractive quarters in the cantonment. After several rubbers of bridge, dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Capt. and Mrs. Howell's guests were Lieut. and Mrs. Holliday, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Miss Lucy Webb, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieut. Jones and Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman.

Capt. Paul B. Malone, 2nd Infantry, was a passenger for Honolulu on board the U. S. T. Sheridan, and Capt. Malone's many friends were delighted to welcome him back to Oahu after an absence of several months in San Francisco, where he has been on duty with the student and citizen camps.

Quite a number from Fort Shafter were on the dock to greet their friends who arrived on the Sheridan. Among those noticed were Captain and Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Malone, Miss Rosenbaum, Mrs. Jamerson, Miss Dorothy Harker, Captain Howell, Lieut. Richardson, Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman.

Lieut. Covell, recently assigned to the Engineer Corps with station at Fort Shafter, arrived on the U. S. transport Sheridan Thursday morning. Lieut. Covell, will for the present, share the quarters occupied by Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman, in the cantonment.

The many friends of Mrs. Wheeler are delighted to hear that she is convalescing. Mrs. Wheeler was operated on at the Department Hospital at Fort Shafter Wednesday, having been taken ill very suddenly last Sunday.

The post will be very quiet socially for the next ten days as the entire garrison took the field on Friday for the annual maneuvers, and it is expected that it will be absent for about ten days.

Mrs. Cochran, mother of Capt. Cochran, arrived Thursday morning on the transport Sheridan from San Francisco.

CALLING DAYS FOR HONOLULU

Mondays—Punahou, Makiki.
Tuesdays—Waikiki, Kapiolani Park, Kaimuki, Palolo. First Tuesday—Fort Ruger.
Wednesdays—Nuanu, Punui, Pacific Heights. First and third Wednesdays, above the Nuanu bridge; second and fourth Wednesdays, below bridge; fourth Wednesday, Pacific Heights; first and third Wednesdays, Alewa Heights.
Thursdays—The Plains.
Fridays—Hotels and town.
Fourth Friday: Fort Shafter, first Friday; Manoa, College Hills, first and third Friday.
Saturdays—Kalihi, third and fourth Saturdays; Kamehameha schools, last Saturday.
Fort Shafter—Calling day every Friday.

Note—The telephone number of the Society Editor is 2799.

The society gave a charming dinner on Tuesday last, entertaining for Capt. and Mrs. Overshine, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight and Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface. The attractive appointments were carried out in pink, rose pink asters forming a dainty centerpiece, the tints of which were reflected in the candelabra shades.

Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface had as dinner guests on Sunday last Capt. and Mrs. Owenshine of the 1st Infantry. The party motored to Haleiwa for a swim and dinner and then returned to the post in time for the performance of "Mr. Henpeck" given by the Teal company.

On Friday afternoon, little Mary Taylor celebrated her first birthday with a "party," inviting all the children of the 25th.

Lieut. and Mrs. Sumter Bratton, 1st Infantry, are being warmly congratulated upon the birth of a daughter on Saturday last.

Mrs. Clarence Day and little son Allen will spend Saturday and Sunday as house-guests of Mrs. James Bell at Fort Shafter.

SOCIETY AT COAST ARTILLERY POSTS

The garrison of Fort Kamehameha entertained with an impromptu tea Saturday afternoon for the guests from town who attended the baseball game. The tea table with its centerpiece of bright hibiscus was placed on the lawn under the trees in front of Lieut. Col. Coe's quarters, and the guests from Schofield Barracks, Fort Shafter and the town posts enjoyed a sociable hour over the refreshments of dainty sandwiches and cold drinks.

Miss Ann Halloran is the houseguest of Mrs. Charles Ragan of Fort Ruger. Lieut. Halloran left this week on the mine planter Maj. Samuel Ringgold for the States, where he will be married to Miss Reta Hunter of Alameda, Cal., the last of the month. Miss Halloran will leave soon on a liner to be present at the wedding of her brother.

The bridge club of Fort Kamehameha met with Mrs. George Taylor Wednesday morning. Mrs. Randolph Zane of Pearl Harbor was the guest of Mrs. Taylor. The highest scores of the morning were made by Mrs. Clifford Jones and Mrs. Sanford French.

Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin O'Hara, Lieut. and Mrs. Daniel Swan, Miss Lucy Webb and Lieut. Woodfin Jones were among the invited guests at a delightful dance given by Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Lowry at their home on Keeaumoku street Thursday evening.

Among those who attended the Bijou Tuesday evening were Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor, Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones from Fort Kamehameha and Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara, and Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Peppin from Fort De Russy.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harold F. Loomis arrived on the transport this week and will make their home at Fort Ruger. Their marriage took place recently in the chapel at Fortress Monroe. Mrs. Loomis was formerly Miss Elizabeth Kimberly.

Mrs. Charles Winn, Mrs. John Mather and Mrs. Sanford French of Fort Kamehameha were the guests of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Coe Monday evening. The party motored in to Honolulu and attended the performance at the Bijou.

The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor of Fort Kamehameha will regret to hear that they are to leave on the January transport. Their next station is to be Fort Moultrie, South Carolina.

Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones entertained informally at supper Sunday evening at their quarters at Fort Kamehameha for Lieut. and Mrs. Guy Gearhart and Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Garcia.

Capt. and Mrs. Francis Hinkle of Fort Armstrong entertained at luncheon Friday for Capt. and Mrs. Lewis Turtle, who are passengers on the transport bound for the Philippines.

Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas D. Sloan of Fort Armstrong had as their house guests during the stay of the transport at Honolulu, Lieut. and Mrs. Harvey D. Higley and two children.

Capt. and Mrs. George Hicks, Jr., of Fort Ruger entertained at dinner Friday evening for Capt. and Mrs. Lewis Turtle from the transport Sheridan.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Applin of Fort Ruger returned on the transport this week from a three months' leave and report a delightful vacation.

Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin O'Hara and Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Peppin motored to Fort Kamehameha Saturday to witness the baseball game.

Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara of Fort De Russy entertained at dinner Sunday for Mrs. Frank Lowry and Mr. A. F. Walton of the Alert.

A new $1,000,000 benzol plant of the United States Steel Corporation at Gary, Ind., is expected to be opened in a few weeks.

(Additional Society on Page 12.)

Special Values
in
Laces,
Embroideries
and new Neckwear
for next week

SACHS

Solid Comfort—Good Meals.
The Place for Recreation.

Haleiwa

Rates, $3.50 a day, $21 a week

Tickets via Oahu Ry.
Wells-Fargo Office.

Good Auto Trip,
30 Mile Ride.

Philippine EMBROIDERIES

Manila Hats
Mandarin Coats
Silk Crepe de Chine
Persian Rugs
Hand-made Linen
Laces

East Indian Store,
BLAISDELL BUILDING,
FORT STREET.

DANCING CLASSES

Dancing classes are being arranged by Madame Lester, graduate member National Association of Masters of Dancing, in I. O. O. F. roof garden ballroom. Adult beginners' class, Monday, October 25, at 8 p. m.

Children's class, Friday, October 22, at 4 p. m.

A class for the younger set, 15 to 18 years of age, will be formed Friday, the 29th, at 8 p. m. Private classes will be arranged for instruction in the modern dances, namely, the black and white, the national one-step, the walk waltz, the national foxtrot, the dream waltz and the slow trot.

Private lessons and classes at the academy or in private homes.

Madame Lester and her dancing partner, Mr. Gordon A. Campbell, will be pleased to act as entertainers at house parties, giving exhibitions of the modern dances. Special attention given to deportment as well as dancing in our children's classes. For further information apply to Madame Lester, Alexander Young Hotel, between the hours of 10 and 12 a. m., or at I. O. O. F. ballroom, 2 to 4 p. m.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oct. 15.—The post has been preparing for the annual maneuvers for the past week, with a consequent scarcity of things social. On Friday, early, the command left Schofield for Red Hill where they expect to remain for 10 days. The garrison seems deserted with only an infrequent man in sight. A number of ladies have gone in town to stay with friends for the 10 days, among whom is Mrs. Vernon Caldwell, who will visit Capt. and Mrs. Massie in Honolulu.

Capt. George deGrasse Catlin gave an attractive dinner on Tuesday evening; covers were placed for 10 around a long table decorated in red; graceful leis of red hibiscus were wreathed about the bases of the branching candelabra placed at either end of the table, while in the center a vase held a lovely cluster of the same flowers. Present were Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Capt. and Mrs. Jay Whitman, Miss Welcome Ayer, Lieut. and Mrs. Elvid Hunt and the best.

Capt. and Mrs. Julius Conrad, who are en route to Manila, were the guests at luncheon of Maj. Julius Penn on Thursday. Lieut. Harvey Higley was the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Charles on Thursday. Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd are staying with Capt. and Mrs. Arthur classes until their quarters are available. Lieut. Barnett is the house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Salt Martin, this evening.

The transport "A" Thursday brought many new officers and ladies to the post among them being Capt. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Capt. John W. Kilb, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry S. Kilbourne, Lieut. and Mrs. John Houser, Lieut. and Mrs. Cliff Andrus, Lieut. Frederick W. Stuart, Lieut. Harold Huntley of the 1st Field Artillery, and Lieut. Chester Barnett.

Lieut. and Mrs. Fred Pitts of the 1st

A most interesting window display, showing the wonderful work of the silk worm and some of the operations used in spinning silk. The exhibit is from Cheney Bros' great mill. You'll also enjoy the

Display of Fine Silks

A presentation of unusually beautiful colorings and patterns possessing real intrinsic value for costumes, waists, lingerie, linings, etc.

Such leading makes as "Soiree" and Cheney Bros' fine silks; as well as exquisite imported novelties.

Whitney & Marsh

Fort Street Between King and Hotel

SILK WEEK—
OCTOBER 13 TO 23
The newest and loveliest weaves now on view. Exquisite colorings and designs.